DEMOCRATS

Hold Convention Here Monday and Elect County Chairman

Hot Contest Over Election But W. S. Woodson Is Chosen

The Democrats of Knox County held their county convention in this city last Monday and after a hot fight Mr. W. S. Woodson of Flat Lick, was elected County Chairman. Both factions are claiming a victory and harmony prevails again in their ranks.

Last Saturday was the day selected to name delegates at the different voting precincts in the county to attend the county convention here Monday, and the delegates elected Saturday had not made their views known sufficiently that either side knew before the convention just how the vote would stand.

Dr. E. B. Dishman and Frank Hawn of this city headed one faction and are known as Stanley men while James Tuggle was recognized as one of the leading Beckham men and bitterly opposed them. The Dishman men made their fight upon the fact that Dr. Dishman was an applicant for the appointment for the position of Internal Revenue Collector under the Democratic National administration and said little about his man Stanley, while the Beckham men came out solidly for the ex-governor and made this their main issue. This was the way the matter stood prior to the convention and was one of the reasons why it was uncertain.

At the convention the Beckham men put up Dr. Crit Jones for their candidate for Chairman and the Dishman crowd put up W. S. Woodson to oppose him. The latter was elected and assumed charge of the meeting.

Both sides are now claiming the victory and seem to be well contented with the way matters have shaped themselves. The Beckham men claim that they were not opposed to Dr. Dishman as being chosen as Collector of Internal Revenue but that they were strongly opposed to Mr. Hawn, who it was at first intended by the Dishman men to offer as a County Chairman. Therefore, now that Mr. Woodson, a Beckham man, is elected County Chairman, they are satisfied, while there seems to be no worry upon the part of the Dishman crowd from the fact that they themselves put up and elected their own chairman.

From the position of an on-looker it appears that the scrap is not nearly over yet and when the time comes for a choice for U. S. Senator there is every indication that another war will be on.

Scarf Sayings

Ed Gibson and Sam Riley was here last week looking for cattle which are very scarce.

Mrs. Nancy Hammons was in Barbourville a few days last week visiting her daughter Donice who was sick at Mrs. Rebecca Jackson's home.

Rev. Jas. F. Smith, of Mills, Ky., stayed over Friday night with T. G. Hammons.

Perry Hubbard and Dan Jackson have been summoned as Petit Jurymen for probably two week term.

They say a change in pasture makes fat cattle.

Since Thomas G. Hammons has assured his candidacy for county Judge, he has received a number of letters of encouragement from various precincts in the county.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Taylor prepared a supper Friday night and invited T. G. Hammons and wife over. A greater part of a baked opossum and corn was stored away.

Squire said, "Send again." Dry Good

Ladies Attention!
